As past lovers energy was regurgitated and released your body + mind re-aligned to your new frequency. Heart healing from surface to core ignited the heart flame. I've listed what presented in your heart.

1st layer ~ Crushes and first boyfriend onwards to husbands + partners of today.

2nd layer ~ How a wounded heart has affected you thru your life. Shoulder, neck and throat release.

3rd layer ~ Your voice which speaks for your heart needs to be heard for you, your mother + grandmother.

4th layer ~ Sing to heal the heart bringing you home to self and to create a sweeter song in your heart.

Sound Medicine:

On the dark moon the essence lay in a crystal bowl with Rose Quartz as I played Geoffrey Gurrumul Yunupingu songs to bring your wandering soul back home. Music and singing is your heart's medicine.

Sound Medicine:

On the New Moon in Taurus the final blessing revealed your heart is ready for a fresh start!

The vision when you take your essence:

Visualize a closed treasure chest symbolizing your heart which slowly opens revealing golden rays of healing light that fill your heart with your inner treasure - your love which now flows thru your heart for healing.

Or see a closed Rose bud in your heart symbolizing your heart that slowly unfolds petal by petal until it's in full bloom and the intoxicating scent of Rose fills your heart sweet heart.
